Version 1.0 Â· April 2026

Terms, Privacy & Conditions of Participation

International Pan-African Youth Conference (IPAYC) 2026 Â· Nairobi, Kenya Â· October 2026
Issued by AUSP.Africa â€" African Union Students' Platform

GOVERNING BODY
AUSP.Africa

EFFECTIVE DATE
April 2026

JURISDICTION
Republic of Kenya

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Definitions & scope 2. Participant categories 3. Registration & fees 4. Cancellation & refunds 5. Code of conduct 6. Sponsorship & partnership 7. Intellectual property 8. Media & photography 9. Privacy & data protection 10. Health & safety 11. Liability & indemnity 12. Force majeure 13. Governing law 14. Acceptance

These Terms & Conditions ("T&C") constitute a legally binding agreement between AUSP.Africa ("the Organiser") and any individual or entity ("the Participant") who registers for, attends, sponsors, partners with, or otherwise participates in the International Pan-African Youth Conference 2026 ("the Conference"). By completing registration or signing any agreement with the Organiser, you confirm that you have read, understood, and accepted these terms in full.

1 Definitions & scope

All participants

1.1 Definitions

In these T&C: "Conference" means IPAYC 2026, to be held in Nairobi, Kenya in October 2026. "Organiser" means AUSP.Africa and its authorised representatives. "Participant" means any person or entity engaging with the Conference in any capacity, including but not limited to delegates, speakers, panellists, sponsors, partners, VIPs, observers, media, volunteers, and facilitators. "Agreement" means these T&C together with any supplementary agreements, letters of intent, or Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) entered into with the Organiser.

1.2 Scope

These T&C apply to all Conference-related activities, including in-person attendance in Nairobi, virtual participation, pre-conference engagements, side events, social functions, media coverage, and any digital platforms operated by the Organiser in connection with IPAYC 2026.

1.3 Amendments

The Organiser reserves the right to amend these T&C at any time. Participants will be notified of material changes via their registered email. Continued participation constitutes acceptance of amended terms.

2 Participant categories & specific terms

All participants

Select a participant category to view specific terms that apply to that group.

Delegates | Speakers & panellists | Sponsors | Partners | VIPs & dignitaries | Observers | Media & press | Volunteers & staff | Virtual delegates

Applies to: local, national, regional, continental, and diaspora delegates attending in person in Nairobi.

Registration confirmation

A delegate's place is confirmed only upon receipt of full payment of the applicable registration fee ($50 standard / $70 for delegates aged 36+) and written confirmation from the Organiser. Submission of a registration form does not constitute a guaranteed place.

Age bracket & fee accuracy

Delegates must accurately declare their age bracket. Misrepresentation of age to obtain a lower fee tier will result in immediate cancellation of registration without refund and may be reported to the delegate's parent institution.

Position paper â€" delegates aged 36+

Senior delegates (36+) are required to submit a position paper on behalf of their declared country or organisation prior to the Conference. The paper must: (a) be submitted no later than 30 days before the Conference; (b) be original work; (c) address at least one thematic pillar of IPAYC 2026. Failure to submit a position paper will not entitle the delegate to a refund but may restrict access to the UN-model plenary debate.

Delegate conduct

Delegates agree to participate respectfully in all sessions, uphold the Pan-African values of the Conference, and comply with all instructions from the Organiser and venue management. Disruptive behaviour will result in removal without refund.

Goodie bag & t-shirt

Delegate materials including the goodie bag and branded t-shirt are distributed once at the registration desk on the first day of the Conference. Uncollected items are not replaceable and no cash equivalent will be offered.

3 Registration, fees & payments

All participants

3.1 Fee structure

Registration fees are as follows: Standard delegate (ages 15â€"35): $50 USD. Senior delegate (age 36+): $70 USD, inclusive of position paper and UN-model plenary debate seat. VIPs, accredited media, and invited speakers may attend at no registration cost as determined by the Organiser. Sponsor and partner fees are as per their respective agreements.

3.2 Payment methods

Accepted payment methods will be communicated via confirmation email. The Organiser accepts mobile money (M-Pesa), bank transfer, and approved digital payment platforms. All fees are stated in USD. Bank charges or conversion fees are the responsibility of the payer.

3.3 Payment deadline

Full payment must be received no later than 30 days before the Conference. Registrations unpaid by this date will be automatically cancelled, and the space may be offered to waitlisted participants.

3.4 Receipts

An official receipt will be issued within 5 working days of payment confirmation. Delegates requiring invoices for institutional reimbursement should request these at the time of registration.

4 Cancellation, transfers & refunds

All participants

4.1 Cancellation by participant

Cancellations must be submitted in writing to the Organiser. The following refund policy applies:

- Cancellation 60+ days before Conference: 75% refund
- Cancellation 30â€"59 days before Conference: 50% refund
- Cancellation less than 30 days before Conference: no refund
- No-show without prior notice: no refund

4.2 Transfer of registration

Delegates may transfer their registration to another eligible person at the same or higher fee tier with written notice to the Organiser no later than 14 days before the Conference. A transfer fee of $10 USD applies.

4.3 Cancellation by Organiser

If the Organiser cancels the Conference for reasons other than force majeure, all paid delegates will receive a full refund within 30 working days. If the Conference is postponed, registrations will be transferred to the new date unless a delegate requests a refund in writing within 14 days of the postponement announcement.

5 Code of conduct

All participants

> Violation of the code of conduct may result in immediate removal from the Conference without refund, and may be reported to the participant's parent institution, government, or relevant professional body.

5.1 Respect & inclusion

All participants are expected to treat every individual at the Conference with dignity and respect, regardless of gender, age, nationality, ethnicity, religion, disability, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic background. IPAYC 2026 is a safe and inclusive space for all.

5.2 Prohibited conduct

The following are strictly prohibited at all Conference venues and events:

- Harassment, intimidation, or threatening behaviour of any kind
- Hate speech, discrimination, or derogatory language
- Physical violence or threatening of violence
- Unauthorised recording or photography of individuals
- Possession or use of illegal substances
- Theft or damage of Conference or venue property
- Misrepresentation of one's identity, credentials, or organisation
- Disruption of sessions, debates, or official proceedings

5.3 Reporting

Participants who experience or witness a code of conduct violation should report it immediately to any member of the Conference Organising Committee or at the designated Delegate Support Desk. All reports will be treated confidentially and investigated promptly.

5.4 Social media conduct

Participants must not publish false, defamatory, or misleading content about the Conference, its organisers, sponsors, partners, or fellow participants on any social media platform. The Organiser reserves the right to pursue legal remedies for reputational damage caused by bad-faith social media conduct.

6 Sponsorship & partnership compliance

Sponsors

6.1 Activation restrictions

Sponsors and partners may only activate agreed benefits within designated areas and time slots confirmed by the Organiser. Unsanctioned branding, distribution of materials, or promotional activities at Conference venues are prohibited and may result in immediate removal of benefits without refund.

6.2 Anti-greenwashing & ethics

Sponsors may not use the Conference association to make claims about their social or environmental credentials that are materially misleading. The Organiser reserves the right to publicly disassociate itself from any sponsor found to be engaged in unethical practices during the period of the partnership.

6.3 Exclusivity

Category exclusivity is available at Title and Platinum sponsor tiers only, as specified in the Sponsorship Packages document. Exclusivity applies to the immediate sector of the sponsor (e.g., a Title sponsor from the banking sector prevents the Organiser from signing another banking sponsor). Exclusivity terms must be expressly stated in the signed Sponsorship Agreement.

7 Intellectual property

All participants

7.1 AUSP.Africa IP

All Conference branding, the IPAYC 2026 name, logo, theme, and all materials produced by the Organiser are the intellectual property of AUSP.Africa. No participant, sponsor, or partner may reproduce, adapt, or commercialise these without written permission.

7.2 Participant-generated content

Position papers, presentations, and other materials submitted by delegates, speakers, and panellists remain the intellectual property of their authors. By submitting, participants grant AUSP.Africa a non-exclusive licence to reproduce and distribute the materials for Conference documentation, publications, and reporting to continental and international bodies including the African Union and relevant UN agencies.

7.3 Conference resolutions

Resolutions, communiquÃ©s, and declarations produced through the Conference's deliberative process are collective outputs of IPAYC 2026 and will be attributed to AUSP.Africa for purposes of advocacy and submission to relevant bodies.

8 Media, photography & image rights

All participants

8.1 Consent to photography

By attending the Conference, all participants acknowledge that photography, video recording, and audio recording may take place in all open session areas. Images and footage may be used by AUSP.Africa for reporting, advocacy, social media, publications, and future promotional purposes.

8.2 Opt-out

Participants who do not wish to be photographed or filmed must notify the Organiser's Media Team in writing before the Conference. The Organiser will make reasonable efforts to accommodate this request but cannot guarantee complete exclusion from group photography in open areas.

8.3 Third-party media

Participants must not share, sell, or licence photographs or footage of other participants taken at the Conference without the express consent of those individuals.

9 Privacy & data protection

All participants

9.1 Data collected

The Organiser collects personal data including name, email, phone number, country, age bracket, dietary requirements, health and accessibility information, professional background, and in some cases passport or national ID details for visa support. This data is collected for the purposes of Conference management, logistics, communication, and post-event reporting.

9.2 Data usage

Personal data will be used solely for Conference-related purposes and will not be sold to any third party. Data may be shared with: (a) the Conference venue for logistics; (b) government authorities as required by Kenyan law; (c) partner organisations with whom you have given consent for data sharing. Anonymised and aggregated data may be used in public reports.

9.3 Data retention

Personal data will be retained for a maximum of 24 months after the Conference for reporting and follow-up purposes, after which it will be securely deleted. Participants may request deletion of their data at any time by writing to the Organiser.

9.4 Your rights

Participants have the right to: access their personal data; request corrections; request deletion; withdraw consent for marketing communications at any time. To exercise these rights, contact the Organiser at the official contact address provided.

9.5 Security

The Organiser employs appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against unauthorised access, loss, or misuse. In the event of a data breach that materially affects participants, the Organiser will notify affected individuals within 72 hours of becoming aware of the breach.

10 Health, safety & wellbeing

All participants

10.1 Health responsibility

Participants are responsible for ensuring they are in good health to attend the Conference. The Organiser strongly advises all participants to obtain comprehensive travel and health insurance prior to travel to Nairobi.

10.2 Medical emergencies

First aid will be available on-site throughout the Conference. In the event of a medical emergency, the Organiser will contact emergency services and designated next-of-kin if provided. The Organiser is not responsible for medical costs incurred by participants.

10.3 Public health

The Organiser reserves the right to require proof of vaccination, negative test results, or compliance with any public health measures mandated by Kenyan authorities at the time of the Conference. Participants who cannot comply may be denied entry without a refund if the requirement is imposed by law.

10.4 Dietary & accessibility needs

The Organiser will make reasonable efforts to accommodate dietary requirements and accessibility needs declared at registration. Late declarations (within 14 days of the Conference) cannot be guaranteed to be fulfilled.

11 Liability & indemnity

All participants

11.1 Limitation of liability

To the fullest extent permitted by Kenyan law, AUSP.Africa shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential loss suffered by any participant, including loss of travel costs, business opportunities, or personal injury not caused by the Organiser's direct negligence.

11.2 Participant indemnity

Each participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless AUSP.Africa, its officers, volunteers, and agents from any claims, damages, or legal actions arising from: (a) the participant's breach of these T&C; (b) the participant's misconduct at or in relation to the Conference; (c) content submitted by the participant that infringes third-party rights.

11.3 Property

The Organiser is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to personal property at Conference venues. Participants are responsible for their own belongings.

12 Force majeure

All participants

The Organiser shall not be liable for failure to fulfil any obligation under these T&C due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to: acts of God, natural disasters, pandemics, acts of terrorism, civil unrest, government restrictions, venue destruction, or internet outages affecting virtual delivery. In such cases, the Organiser will communicate its position within 7 days and endeavour to reschedule or provide alternatives where feasible.

13 Governing law & dispute resolution

All participants

13.1 Governing law

These T&C are governed by the laws of the Republic of Kenya. Any disputes arising from or in connection with participation in IPAYC 2026 shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Kenyan courts.

13.2 Dispute resolution

The parties agree to first attempt to resolve any dispute through good-faith negotiation within 30 days of a written notice of dispute. If unresolved, the matter may be referred to mediation before any litigation is pursued. The language of all proceedings shall be English.

13.3 Severability

If any clause of these T&C is found to be unenforceable, the remaining clauses shall continue in full force and effect.

Acceptance of terms

Please read all sections carefully. Check each box to confirm your understanding and provide your details to generate a signed acceptance record.

- [ ] I have read and understood the Terms, Privacy & Conditions of IPAYC 2026 in full, including the provisions applicable to my participant category.
- [ ] I consent to the collection and use of my personal data as described in Section 9 (Privacy & Data Protection) and understand my rights regarding that data.
- [ ] I agree to abide by the Code of Conduct (Section 5) and understand that violations may result in removal from the Conference without refund.
- [ ] I acknowledge the cancellation and refund policy (Section 4) and accept the registration fee applicable to my category.
- [ ] I confirm that the information I have provided during registration is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.

FULL NAME

As per registration

PARTICIPANT CATEGORY

-- Select --

ORGANISATION

Institution or company

DATE OF ACCEPTANCE

Auto-filled on acceptance

Accept & confirm all terms